Rumors of a Movement For the Restoration of the Monarchy.

They Originated in a Recent Expression Used by J. B. Castle.

An Absurd Rumor About the Annexation of the Islands to the United States— The Young Princess Kaiulani Will Return to Hawait-Kilaues

Special Correspondence of the United As-sociated Press.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 17 .- HONOLU-LU, Sept. 9 .- For a few days a week or more ago Honolulu was full of vague rumors of a movement to restore the monarchy with the young Princess Kaiulani as queen. When traced to their source these rumors were all found to originate in a recent expression used by J. B. Castle to a representive of a San Francisco paper that such restoration under Kaiulani was a "hy-Dress Goods.—New arrivals of all pothetical possibility." There is a to-wool Serges, Henriettas, Black Novel- tal absence of any indication of such a movement or of any tendency that

> An absurd rumor appeared in a San Francisco journal as coming from Honolulu, that United States Minister Willis had returned here empowered to negotiate for either annexation or a protectorate, or Kaiulani as queen, the choice of either form of government to be left to a vote of the people. Mr. Willis de-cisively states that such rumors are absolutely without foundation. Nothing in his instructions or in his talk with officials in Washington in any way bore upon such

> The return to Honolulu of the Princess Kaiulani is expected within a month, in company with her father, A. S. Cleghorn, after eight years' absence in England. She will probably receive more or less ovation on landing, from natives and half whites, although many think that her friends will discourage such manifestations for fear that she might thereby imperil her pension of $2,000. It is not probable that the government would feel much concern about any such demonstrations or interfere with any expressions of sympathy the natives might be disposed to show.

> A Lynching Probable. ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 17.—A special to the Constitution from Cuthbert, Ga.,

Authentic reports indicate the capture of the Negro, Lum Warren, who made the desperate assault upon Mrs. John Bass, in Terrell county, near the Large spool Crochet and Knitting Dougherty county line, and that the capturing party are on their way with the prisoner to the scene of the crime. The prospects are that Warren will be lynched. A previous report that he had been captured and burned was incorrect.
